MENDELSON'S NATIONAL Bank Note Reporter, AND FINANCIAL GAZETTE.

Furnished only to Subscribers.

Published Monthly, Semi-Monthly & Weekly.

Monthly, (per annum)	$1 50
Semi-Monthly,	3 00
Weekly,	5 00

The plan of this Reporter being different from any other one published—viz: by describing the genuine bills as well as noting the counterfeit and fraudulent ones, enables any one to detect at a glance, by comparing the bill presented with the description in the Reporter whether it is genuine or not, or issued by the bank it purports to be from.

Every counterfeit that has ever been made has one or more mistakes in it. Our aim is to show what that mistake is.

Subscriptions may commence with any month. Remit by Drafts or Postal Orders. All letters must be addressed to

TO BANKS, BANKERS AND MERCHANTS.

This Reporter, which has a bona fide circulation of nearly 50,000 names, and will be found on the counters of almost every Merchant, Bank and Banker in the United States and Canada, is certainly for the financial and commercial community the best advertising medium extant.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.

National Bank of the State of N. Y.,
New York City.

10s are in circulation. They are exceedingly well executed. Better examine carefully all 10s on the National Banks.

First Nat. Bank, Houston, Texas.

10s, imitation; engraving well done—paper poor. String of the kite where it leaves Franklin's hand to pass through the key, not visible.

Concord Nat. B'k, Concord, Mass.

20s raised from 5s. Well done. Vig. of genuine 20 is Battle of Lexington.

Sixth National Bank, Philadelphia, Pa.

2s, imitation. The clouds above the female on left end have a scratchy appearance; the shading under the title of the bank is somewhat irregular, and the engraving on the back of the note is coarse. Better examine all bills of this denomination carefully, as the plate will undoubtedly be altered to other banks.

Nat'l Union Bank, Kinderhook, N. Y.

2s, imitation. The bill is 1/8 of an inch longer than the genuine. The vignette is 1/4 of an inch broader. The engraving is well calculated to deceive, but is poorly printed.

National Bank of Commerce, N. Y. City.

10, imitation, well executed, are reported in circulation.

First National Bank, N. Y. City.

American National Bank, N. Y. City.

First Nat'l Bank of Philadelphia, Pa.

Merchants' National Bank, N. Y. City.

5s, imit., are reported in circulation.

National Bank of Commerce, New Bedford, Mass.

50s, imit. well executed and calculated to deceive.

National Banks.

NO. III.

In suggesting the improvements required in the law as a whole creating and governing the National Banks, we start with the implied understanding that the system, when perfected as it will be, is the best and most satisfactory banking system yet devised for the whole country, and is to be continued without immediate limit, and therefore any necessary improvements demanded should be promptly made, and—

First. We would extend the time from twenty years as first authorized, to fifty years.

Second. Remove the Currency Bureau or Comptroller's Banking department including all subordinate offices pertaining to the same to the city of New York. The only argument necessary on this point is the simple statement, that inasmuch as New York City is the commercial and financial centre of the country, it of necessity follows that the location of the Superintendent of the banking interest of the country should be there.

Third. Require a Clearing or Assorting House to be established in the City of New York and require all banks in the United States to redeem their notes at that place on presentation at par, in addition to the home or counter redemption.

Fourth. Require all banks to retain and keep on hand (as so much of their reserve fund now required to be kept) five (5) per cent of the gold interest received from the Treasury from time to time on bonds to secure circulation, until twenty-five (25) per cent of their required reserve is in coin, and from and after that retain that proportion of coin in their vaults.

Fifth. In case of the failure of a bank the securities to be sold at public sale in the City of New York, notice being first given of the sale, the kind and amount of securities and for whose benefit they are sold; and when sold the avails to be deposited in a Savings Bank or Trust Company on interest, security first being pledged for the safe return of the money, which security may be the same as is now given to the government for deposits, except that it should be for the full amount deposited. The interest on this deposit and also the benefits or profits from any loss or circulation or premium on the securities sold on the final closing of the bank to accrue to the creditors of such failed bank in the order as follows: Bill-holders first, (in case of deficiency of securities pledged.) Depositors second, and other creditors third, and lastly stock holders. The reason for this fifth amendment is, that in many cases so bad are the failures of banks that depositors lose, and in many instances it is those that cannot afford to lose, as often would be the case, where the loss of a small deposit in a National bank would rob (so to speak) a poor, aged, and feeble woman or tottering old man, of all they possessed; therefore, all profits arising from the operation of closing the bank should inure to those interested in it and not to the government whose real interest is to see that justice is done to all.

Sixth. Authorize the organization of banks without limit, except that no bank shall be established with less than $100,000 capital, except in towns of less than 3,000 inhabitants, and in no case less than $50,000 capital; and in all cases at least 25 per cent of the capital of all banks hereafter organized shall be invested in a five per cent semi annual interest United States bonds having fifty years to run, which shall be deposited with the Comptroller of the Currency, on which the bank may receive circulation to the amount of 90 cents on the dollar on the amount of such bonds so deposited, which may be to the extent of 75 per cent of its capital.

It may be claimed by some that this is throwing the door wide open, and that the country would be flooded with currency. I admit, first, that it does open the door to all who choose and have the means to engage in banking to do so; and this is as it should be, for I claim that it is a legitimate and proper business of the country for the capital and energy and talent of the country to be engaged in; and no prohibition should be imposed upon it any more than upon mercantile, manufacturing, cotton growing, agriculture, or any other branch of business or trade; the main consideration being the safe regulation and security of the business to the public. And as to any great increase of currency under the regulations named, I believe no apprehension need be entertained for a moment, for no bank will keep out circulation unless it is profitable; and it would be profitable just to the extent needed, and not a dollar beyond, for as soon as there was more currency in circulation than was needed it would be immediately returned to the banks, and they must lay it aside until it is needed, or return it to the comptroller for destruction. As the matter now stands, the banking business is limited to its present condition, and no matter how many new towns and cities may be built up, or agricultural, manufacturing or mining districts be brought into activity, no more banking facilities are allowed to be created, except under decidedly unfavorable circumstances as compared with what is already created, and this prohibition is acting injuriously against the development of the resources of the country in new and mercantile sections. And with the prompt redemption we have proposed, and the restrictions also, we feel entirely confident that free scope may and should be given to the banking business; believing that the only change to be produced would be to create a few banks where they are now needed, with a moderate country circulation, while the prompt redemption required would cause the large city banks who now monopolize the circulation, to retire a portion of it, and send the country circulation on home where it would be needed, thus keeping the circulation evenly distributed, the banks healthy, and the currency clean and sound instead of mutilated, as much of it now is. The prompt redemption proposed, would keep the great commercial centre of the country clear of the large amount of currency that accumulates there at inactive seasons of the year, and is stacked away like useless paper. Having proposed a five per cent United States bond for the use of the National banks, we shall next consider briefly our NATIONAL FINANCES.

H. J. M.

Beware of Forged Signatures.

In the Report of the Comptroller of the Currency, he states that National Currency, prepared for circulation (except the names of the President and Cashier) has been taken from packages at sundry times, mostly 50 and 100 dollar notes.

In 1864 some packages sent to the West were found short, and that impressions were missed in 1865. One entire package of $4,500 in 50 and 100 dollar notes of the National City Bank of Lynn, Mass. In 1867 a package of $12,000, of the First National Bank of Jersey City was stolen. But few of these notes have yet been circulated we believe, and therefore our patrons can not be too careful in handling 50 and 100 dollar notes on the above banks. Examine the signatures with care.

Carpet Report.

The advance in premium on gold tends to strengthen the price of Foreign Carpets. Crossleys are held firmly by the importers at 165 and other makers at 150 to 160; and in Domestic Goods the tendency is to an advance in prices. Philadelphia manufacturers are very tenacious, and not only refuse to submit to a reduction, but have stopped their looms, alleging that the goods cannot be procured at buyers views as to prices. L. E. & Co.

It is reported that the Comptroller of the Currency and the Secretary of the Treasury, having been advised that the capital of certain of the national banks of this city was being largely loaned on fancy railroad stocks, for speculative purposes, have ordered an immediate investigation by the examiners. We presume that there is little reason to doubt the substantial correctness of the information received by the authorities of the Treasury. As such transactions will not only seriously involve the stability of such banks, and bring the national banking system into great discredit, but moreover are in direct violation of the national currency act, the proposed action, if vigorously followed up, cannot fail to produce a most salutary effect. It is high time that the lofty kite-flyers on other men's capital had their strings cut. Their transactions involve not only individual interests, but the public welfare. The mania for speculation thus fostered by the banks infects all classes. It inflates prices, deranges business, breeds a distaste for the more sober and steady avocations of trade, and in the insane haste to be rich which it engenders leads to the gravest moral aberrations. Is it surprising, if bank presidents and directors are ready to loan the funds of their customers upon moonshine securities, that their cashiers and clerks are tempted to try their own luck with the cash under their control, without submitting the question to a vote of their employers? The numerous astounding defalcations which during the past two years have come to light, certainly attest that the practice has become only too common; while the fact that these transactions have been carried on successfully for months and years before detection, leads to the suspicion that the cases exposed are but a moiety of those which actually occur. By all means let the investigation proceed.

DETECTION OF COUNTERFEIT GREENBACKS.

Divide the last two figures of the number of the bill by 4, and if 4 remain, the letter on the genuine will be A; if 2 remain, it will be B; if 3, C. Should there be no remainder, the letter will be D. For example, a note is registered 2461; divide 61 by 4, and you have 1 remaining. According to the rule, the letter on the note will be A. In case the rule fails, be certain that bill is a counterfeit.

The rule is by no means infallible, for the bill may be counterfeit, and the letter correspond to the number indicated by the rule.

CONCORD NATIONAL BANK.

CONCORD, Mass., Jan. 16, 1868.

L. MEDELSON, Esq.,

Dear Sir,—I have, o report $5 notes on this bank altered to $20s are in circulation. Well calculated to deceive. Can be detected by examining the figure 20 in the right and left upper corners of the bill.

Yours Resp'y,
J. M. CHENEY.

Description of Genuine Bills.

NATIONAL NOTES.

1s—vig. two females with hands clasped, one pointing upward, name and location of bank above—large figure 1 on left end, with the inscription; 'This note is secured by bonds of the United States deposited with the U. S. Treasurer at Washington.' On other side, vig. landing of the Pilgrims.

5s—vig. Columbus discovering America, on lower left end; right end, Columbus introducing America to Europe, Asia and Africa, countries represented by female figures. Other side—vig. landing of Columbus.

10s—vig. Franklin drawing lightning from the clouds.—Allegorical representation of Genius of America, a female figure upon an eagle in the clouds grasping a thunderbolt. Other side—vig., De Soto discovering the Mississippi.

20s—vig. Battle of Lexington. Allegorical representation of Loyalty, figure of Liberty in foreground, bearing national ensign; farmers, artisans, &c., rallying around the flag. Other side—Baptism of Pocahontas.

50s—vig. Washington crossing Delaware. Allegorical representation, prayer for victory. Other side—embarkation of the pilgrims.

100s—vig. Battle of Lake Erie. Allegorical representation Maintenance of Liberty and Nationality. Other side—Declaration of Independence.

500s, vig. right end, arrival of the Sirius, 1838—left end, female sitting on a gun overlooking the sea, steamship in distance. Other side—surrender of General Burgoyne.

1000s—right end, Capitol of Washington—left end, Gen. Scott entering the City of Mexico. Other side, Washington resigning his commission.

GREENBACKS.

50s left centre, oval portrait of Hamilton; Treasury die in pink on right of die; 50 on die on each end of note.

100s, upper left centre, large spread eagle sitting on a rock; Treasurer's die in pink and 100 in green die on right of vig.—right upper corner, 100 on a black die—lower left corner 100 on a black die.

EXPLANATIONS.

Photographed Notes.—These are of a dull brownish color, and the engraving indistinct or blurred. Photograph bills are never black. A sure test of any note suspected of being a photograph is to touch it with a solution of Cyanide of Potassium when it will immediately fade out and turn white if it be a photograph.

The Rates are the Discount.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.
NATIONAL BANK BILLS
COUNTERFEITED.

Raised Bills.

10s, raised from 1s. Vig. of 1s, two female figures with hands clasped, one pointing upwards. 10s have figure of Franklin drawing electricity from the clouds, and on back of bill is DeSoto discovering the Mississippi. On back of 1s is the Landing of the Pilgrims. Well done.

50s, altered from a 5. The bills were altered from $5s to 50s by pasting "50" on the 5 on the corner, and over the "five" in the centre. It will be well to look out for them.

100s raised from 5s on the National Banks are in circulation.

Peoples' Nat'l Bank, Jackson, Mich.

5s, imit., the bill is roughly executed. The signatures of both president and cashier are printed; the neat figure of the two females, sitting, on the lower right, is almost invisible; in the genuine it is very clear and distinct. The back of the bill is still more bunglingly made than the front.

Union National Bank N. Y. City.

First National Bank, Whitehall, N. Y.

First Nat'l Bank of Rochester, N. Y.

National Bank, Cherry Valley, N. Y.

Flour City Nat'l B'k, Rochester, N. Y.

10s, imit. This bill is well executed, and a dangerous counterfeit. The Die on the upper right end is very pale and has a speckled appearance in the imitation instead of a dark and lined appearance, as in the genuine; observe the small curved line under word 'United;' in the imitation it connects the letters UNI, the genuine does not. The signatures are engraved, and the bill is 1/4 inch longer.

Third National Bank, Philadelphia, Pa.

10s, imit., letter B. Observe on upper right margin of the face of the bill the small words "National Currency" between small figures 10. The word "Currency" is spelled "Curreny." The shading of the words "Will pay" and "to Bearer" are heavy in the genuine but very light in the counterfeit. Als, the "P" in "Philadelphia" in imitation, runs below the rest of the letters. Genuine does not.

Merchants' National Bank, N. Y. City.

10s, imit.; The signatures are printed, and poorly done, and the numbering is blotched. The bill otherwise is well done.

Geneseo National Bank, Batavia, N. Y.

Market Nat'l Bank, New York City.

10s, imit; poorly done. Look out.

Highland Nat'l Bank, Newburgh, N. Y.

10s imit. The green color is as good on the imit. as the genuine, and the dies, figures and lettering on the back well done. The engraving of the pictures are as coarse as wood cuts, particularly the representation of De Soto discovering the Mississippi. The river is black and the canoes scarcely discernible without a magnifying glass, while in the genuine they are plain and distinct.

The female riding on the eagle on the right end face of the bill has neither nose or mouth, and no toes to her feet. There are five curved lines between States and Washington in the gen. but only four in the imit. There are four curves under Treasurer in gen. and only three in imit. Paper thin and white.

Fourth Nat'l Bank, Phila, Pa

20s imit., face of bill is well executed, and will deceive good judges of money. The engraving of the Baptism of Pocahontas is coarse, and the figure 2 on the back of bill is very much different from the genuine; the one on the left is imperfect, and the 0 is larger than in the genuine. The words "imprisonment at hard labor" at the bottom of note run together, especially the 'd' and 'l,' which are almost in one.

Observe on counterfeit the butt of the musket on lower left corner touches the scroll work around figures "20," and the hand of the female on man's breast, the fingers can scarcely be seen. On genuine no part of the gun touches and the fingers are quite distinct. On counterfeit under the words "This note," where it reads "This note is secured," &c., there are but THREE flourishes—genuine has FOUR, also one between United and States, which is omitted in counterfeit. [Those lines can be added, however, in future impressions]. The letter 'a' in 'Treasurer' under Spinner's name is larger than the other letters, and while the counterfeit is the same length of genuine it is at least one quarter of an inch narrower. On counterfeit the shield beside the eagle on back of the note contains but six stars, and they are very imperfect—on genuine seventeen stars are visible.

First National Bank, Indianapolis, Ind.

Chicago, Ill.

20s, imitation, L. E. Chittenden, Register. 1775 left off the imitation alongside the gun in the Battle of Lexington on the left end of the face of the bill.

First National Bank, Portland, Me.

Portland, Conn.

New Albany, Ind.

20s, imit. (2d kind) S. B. Colby, Register, are very finely engraved and well calculated to deceive; the engraving is much darker than the former, and has the following mistakes: the woman's face, arms and neck in the engraving of the Battle of Lexington are black, the genuine are white; the clouds back of the soldiers' heads are heavy and dark in the imit., but scarcely seen in the genuine; the Indian girl sitting on the ground (in the picture of the Baptism of Pocahontas) has a child on her lap in the genuine, but none in the counterfeit. The Indianapolis counterfeit has the child on her lap, and is more correct in design, but not in engraving. Look carefully at all 20s, as the plate can be altered to 1600 Banks by merely changing the name of the town.

First National Bank, Boston, Mass.

20s, imit., (3d kind) the left hand of the soldier holding the gun does not touch "D" in deposited—in genuine it does. Observe on counterfeit the butt of the musket on lower left corner touches the scroll work around figures "20," and the hand of the female on man's breast, the fingers can scarcely be seen. On genuine no part of the gun touches, and the fingers are quite distinct. On counterfeit under the words "This note" where it reads "This note is secured," &c., there are but THREE flourishes—genuine has FOUR, also one between United and States, which is omitted in counterfeit. [Those lines can be added, however, in future impressions]. The letter "a" in "Treasurer" under Spinner's name is larger than the other letters, and while the counterfeit is the same length of genuine it is at least one-quarter of an inch narrower. On counterfeit the shield beside the eagle on back of note contains but six stars, and they are very imperfect—on genuine seventeen stars are visible.

Central National Bank, New York.

Ohio Nat'l Bank, Cincinnati.

First Nat'l Bank, Boston, Mass.

100s, imitation. The only way for the public to protect themselves will be not to take any $100 National Bank Notes, except they are received from sources of well known respectability. One of the peculiarities of the counterfeit we have referred to is the "T," in the word maintain, on the right hand of the bill, is defective, and looks like the letter "I." The counterfeiter, however, can soon remedy this defect.

LOOK OUT!
COUNTERFEIT GREENBACKS.

1s, (1st kind) can be readily detected by the inferior style of the engraving, particularly the head of Chase. The mouth is crooked, the eyes imperfect, and the hair on the top of the head resembles side hair brushed over to cover baldness. The back is of a lighter green than the genuine.

1s, (2d kind) the general appearance is very coarse and may readily be detected; green ink is very pale. On the imitation there is a BLACK STRAIGHT LINE under the red figures on the upper part of the bill; none in gen.

2s, imit., well executed. Coat of Hamilton badly done. The shirt bosom of Hamilton is very dark and uneven, but in the genuine white and plain. The shading of the words "UNITED STATES" light and broken.

5s, 10s, genuine notes without the red seal, and others reported without the usual number being printed upon them.

5s, imit., words "United States" heavily shaded. Gen. are clear, lightly shaded and plain. The words "Patented 30th June, 1857," under the words N. York are not on the counterfeit bill. All the counterfeits are letter A, and are $\frac{1}{2}$ inch shorter than the genuine.

On the new series of letter "A," around the figure of Liberty on left end is a plain black line. On the counterfeits, this line along the bottom of the figure running towards the right of the note forms two distinct lines, on gen. only one. But this may be a counterfeiter's dodge to have it described and alter it afterwards.

5s, imit., this bill is well calculated to deceive, and the only difference we can detect is in the die on the right end enclosing the figure 5. The genuine has three black circles enclosing the 5. The imit. has only two, and on lower right end figure 8, and on left end series 90.

10s alt'd from 1s, portrait of Chase on left.

10s imit. There are 16 small Xs on upper right margin, and only 15 on the genuine. The words "Printed by the National Bk Note Co." on lower left margin extends over 9 of the Xs on imit. and 8 on the genuine.

10s, imit., has 14 small x's on upper right margin—16 on left. The gen. has 15 x's each side of engravers name. Portrait of Prest. Lincoln is very coarse and pale looking; imit. are dated Washington, March 10, 1862, letter C.

20s, very close imit. of gen., the engraving is good, in the center figure the foot of the female can scarcely be seen. On the left end bottom are the words "Payable at the Treasury of the U. S. at New York." The A's in payable are too small and uneven. The letter 'n' in the word 'The' is not crossed in the centre. The imprint is defective; the green ink is of too light a color.

50s, alt'd from 2s, portrait of Hamilton on left centre. The vignettes of the two-dollar and fifty-dollar Treasury note are the same. Ingenious persons are counterfeiting the body of the fifties and using the vignettes of the twos, producing a note that deceives experts.

50s, imit. observe the figures 50 on back of the bill around the margin, the 5 in the imit. runs into the 0, gen. does not. The word 'FIFTY' around the above 50 can scarcely be read. Words 'LEGAL TENDER' is very much blurred. Letter C dated March 8, '63. On the left lower corner the No 550 instead of 50 enclosed in one circle.

50s, imit., observe the head of Hamilton, upon the face of the note, which represents the line of the waistcoat crossing the white collar at the neck. The acute angle formed by the shape of the collar, so far as it is shown, is perfect in the counterfeit note; but in the genuine the lines of the flesh were drawn by the engraver across the point of the collar at its junction with the waist coat, for the purpose of relieving the angle of the sharpness it would otherwise have exhibited. This difference is not readily observed unless the notes are perfectly clean. The other discrepancy is in the shape of the ornaments in the border on each end of the face of the bills, and in the whole border on the back. The figures "50" are engraved on a green ground, of which the rim in the genuine bill, is in octagonal form, rather well defined, though the angles are not sharp. The eight sides of what at first view appeared to be circles, may be easily discerned. In the counterfeit bill the border ornaments, containing the "50" are octagonal in only a very slight degree, and seem to be perfect circles. The general appearance of the counterfeit gives no indication of its true character.

100s, imit., the red figures are much larger than the figures of any Treasury Notes, the wings of the eagle are very coarse—the double rule running from it is heavier, and the curve twice as large, while there is a diagonal shading at the joint of the imprint with the rule, which does not appear on the genuine. On the right end of the back of the bill, the 100 in the circles are inverted, thus, 001. In the genuine this inversion is on the left end. The imprint, American Bank Note Co., is very uneven, and too large.

100s, imit., (2d kind) of the notes issued under the act of February, 1862, well executed. The spurious note is smaller, and the coloring on the back is paler than on the genuine bill. The words "one hundred dollars" on the right hand side of the counterfeit are smaller than on the genuine note.

100s, imit., (8d kind) the note is smaller than the genuine, the spread eagle is very coarse, and the shading of UNITED STATES is badly done. The bill is calculated to deceive.

COUNTERFEIT FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Old Issue.

50s, imit., the portraits of Washington differs one from another; in the genuine they are all alike; the green color looks light and pale.

25s, imit., well executed. Look out.

2d Issue.

10s, imitation. All gen. on the top has the word "Depositaries," the imitation reads "Depositories."

50s, imit., have a pale slate color. The small barrels on lower right corner are very indistinct. The gen. have six barrels perfectly clear and plain. Three on lower row, two on next, and one on top. The counterfeit barrels are black, and gen. are white.

50s raised from 5s.

3d Issue.

50c. imit.; two kinds of the new long 50 cent currency. The imitation of one kind has DESIGNATED on upper right corner instead of DESIGNATED. The second kind has designated correctly spelt, but on the little American Shield, under the Eagle, there is a black line drawn across the upright bars of the Shield. Not so on the genuine.

25s, imit., are very pale and coarse. The letter C in cents on left end is smaller than the other letters, and too far off.

New Issue.

25, imitation. Above the words "Treasury Department," on the bottom of the bill in the genuine there is a fine narrow line—the counterfeits have a straight line.

25s, imit., well executed, but may be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word Treasurer under Spinner's name; the work is better than any we have previously seen and liable to deceive unless carefully examined.

25s, well executed; head of Chittenden; where it reads "Furnished only by the Assistant Treasurers" the Assistant is spelt "Assistatn." In the genuine the shading of the letter "E" in "Five" is unbroken, while the counterfeit has a little notch in it.

50s, well executed. The engraving on the face of the note is excellent. The adverse is slightly blurred. The notes are an eighth of an inch narrower than the genuine.

50s, the "y" in "Colby's" name crosses a line of the coat in the genuine, but not in the counterfeit.

50s, the line of stars on counterfeit between the figures "50" at the top and bottom of the back of the note have white centres, while the entire stars on genuine are in green. The reading in black on the genuine note clear and distinct, while on the counterfeit the bronze is printed on the black, the words "FIFTY CENTS" being almost obliterated.

50s, well done. The last "e" in the signature of F. E. Spinner is omitted in some, and the (.) after print. on one end, and the d. after March 30.

50s. New and dangerous counterfeits of the last issue of the fifty cent fractional currency notes, which bear upon their face the head of Treasurer Spinner, have been detected by the Treasury Department. It can be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word print on the right end, and also under the letter "d" in "March 30," on the left end. The paper is thicker than that of the genuine notes, and the general appearance is calculated to deceive unless closely inspected.

Counterfeit Compound Interest Notes.

50s, imit., Compound Interest Notes, have a scratchy appearance, issue of July 15th, 1864. In the imitation the words "three years after date" on the top of the bill nearly touch the words "Treasury Department," while in the genuine there is a space of $\frac{3}{8}$ of an inch between.

2d. In the imit. the last button of Hamilton's coat is $\frac{1}{2}$ of an inch from the lower margin of the small 50s, while in the gen. the button touches the margin.

100s, Counterfeit 6 per cent. Compound Interest Notes. The engraving as well as the paper and the ink stand the comparison to the genuine. The "U" in "United States" touches the die of the "100" on the left upper corner; on the genuine there is a space of $\frac{1}{8}$ of an inch between.

COUNTERFEIT 7.30 BONDS.

FIRST.—The seal is slightly larger than the genuine; the red ink with which it is stamped is a shade lighter, and the points projecting from the seal are blurred and a little longer than the genuine.

SECOND.—The imprint at the bottom of the face of the bond is set different in the margin, there being more space given it than in the genuine.

THIRD.—The borders of the coupon which are attached to the counterfeit bonds are larger, while the red figures are finer than in the genuine.

FOURTH.—The borders of the ornamental lathe work are blurred and somewhat indifferently executed.

FIFTH.—The figures denoting the bond are slightly uneven, while the blue ink in which they are printed is a duller blue and lacks the metallic glossy appearance of the genuine.

SIXTH.—The lines forming the right shoulder of the female in the central vignette do not come up to the sword, but leave a white space. In the genuine note the lines are not only more numerous, but they come clearly and distinctly up to the sword.

On the back, the cycloid work upon which the words "pay to bearer" are engraved is much darker and heavier on the counterfeit than on the genuine; the counterfeit lines are rough, while the genuine are sharp and clear. In the date of the option the "Th" after June 15th is nearer to the figures 1868 in the genuine, while in the counterfeit the "Th" is some distance from the figures.

COUNTERFEIT COUPONS.

The following are the words on the coupons:

"Acts of July 17 and August 5, 1861. The United States of America will pay to bearer fifteen dollars for six months' interest due 1st January, 1867, upon bond No. 785, for $500. L. E. Chittenden, Register United States Treasury."

FIVE CENT COIN COUNTERFEITS

Are in circulation. They may be distinguished from the genuine by the softness of the metal

TO BANK OFFICERS.

Officers of Banks are respectfully invited to address us when we are inaccurate, also to inform us of any changes in the organization of their Banks, changes in officers, &c.

At a large meeting of merchants, bankers and members of the Board of Trade, held at the Board of Trade Rooms, Indianapolis, Ind., resolutions were unanimously adopted, declaring that it is the duty of Congress, under the Constitution, to regulate the Currency and provide for the general welfare, and that as there now exists an indispensable necessity for its exercise, they ask for a comprehensive policy, which shall be plainly marked out by law, and one that shall embody the following principles; Cessation of the whole policy of contraction; payment of the public debt in accordance with the letter and spirit of the laws under which it was made; a postponement of the liquidation of any portion of the public debt until the people are able to pay the same without distress.
